CHARTERED FEBRUARY 1900

Whit Craft married Bridget _____ and they had a son Bryant Craft. Both Whit and Bridget were from Ireland.

Bryant married Sally Harvey Keyes who had two brothers, Sylvester Keyes who died at Vicksburg, and the other brother whose name is unknown. Bryant was a Captain in the Civil War - a recruiter. Sally and Bryant lived on a farm near Taylorsville, Mississippi. Bryant was a man of some means. They had a son Joshua Bryant Craft.

Joshua Bryant Craft married Charity Pamela Duckworth from South Carolina (no other information on her family is known). They had six (6) children. The oldest child was Francis Benjamin Craft who was born November 16, 1859 (Grandmom Fowler's father) who married Mary Alice Jones who was born May 13, 1868. They were married on January 17, 1886.

Another son of Joshua and Charity Craft was Jeff, their fifth (5) child. He married Minnie Trimble and they had three (3) children. Charity (Mrs. Ray Bright) lives in Houston, Texas; Ella (Mrs. Frank Dunham) lives in Fort Worth, Texas; and Joe Bryant Craft of Louisiana.

Joshua, the fourth(4) born to Joshua and Charity Craft, left home in his teens roaming throughout Texas, Oklahoma and Missouri. He was caught with a band of train robbers (The Colten Gang). When escaping from Prison, he broke his ankle jumping from a wall. He hid in the woods - a posse in pursuit. He shot a man who was passing by thinking he was the law. Notified of Joshua's trouble, his mother Charity went to Missouri and spent about four (4) weeks there just before he was tried and executed in Jefferson City, Missouri, at the age of 18 or 19. All this happened in the late 1890's. Joshua was buried in Jefferson City.

Mary, their third (3) child, was a beautiful girl and trouble was brewing with the Sullivan family over her. (This is the start of the Sullivan-Craft Feud in Mississippi once written about in the Saturday Evening Post sometime in the 1950's). Mary's brother Bryant would escort her to social affairs at night. Bryant was killed in a dispute with the Sullivans one night when he went with his brother Francis (our grandfather) to water the horses and a fight ensued with some Sullivans. Francis probably killed a Sullivan. It is thought that Mary had an illegitimate child or two by Sullivans. Bryant was 17-19 years old when he died.

Mary Craft stayed in Mississippi when her Mother and brothers moved West in 1877. She married Dan Hathorne. Her youngest child, Annie Redmon, lives in Oklahoma. Her oldest child was Bud (?Sullivan) Hathorne who threatened to kill Francis (his uncle and our grandfather). Mary moved from Taylorsville to Bogaloussa, Louisiana, and lived there until her death.

Braxton was the youngest child of Joshua and Charity's. He died very young of brain fever and is buried in Wise County Cemetery, Texas.

In 1873 when their oldest child was only 14 years old (Francis), Joshua left Charity and went to Louisiana with another woman. He got sick with T.B. and returned to Mississippi and Charity who nursed him until he died shortly afterward.

Captain Bryant Craft, Charity's father-in-law, took Charity and her six (6) children to live with them. This is when the trouble with the Sullivan's over Charity's daughter, Mary, started. Bryant told Charity to get the four boys out of Mississippi and he would provide the money. They went to Texas in 1877. Francis (our grandfather) was 18 years old. Mary stayed in Mississippi and married Dan Hathorne. Charity and the boys went to Texas by wagon through Mississippi and Louisiana swamp trails. They camped in an abandoned barn during a storm. The barn blew down and Charity's knee was broken. They continued their trip with her broken knee, but Charity was crippled all the rest of her life. She died in 1933.

Charity and the boys stopped in Boske County and rented a farm, but the crop failed so they moved to Palo Pinto (near Mineral Wells, Texas) and stayed one (1) year when another crop failed. Then they moved to Wise County and bought a farm of 160 acres of bottom land. Later they bought more. Here is where Braxton contracted brain fever and died (This is during the time Joshua got into the train robbing gang)

Francis, the eldest, (our grandfather) had tired of the farm and agreed to give his brother Jeff the farm if he would support their mother, Charity. Francis returned to Mississippi and married Mary Alice Jonnes on January 17, 1886, in Taylorsville. He was 27 years old. He bought a farm and lived there until his nephew Bud (Sullivan) Hathorne threatened to kill Francis. Mary Alice convinced him to leave again in 1896. (This was 20 years later and Sullivan's still after Francis) Bud stood in the road waiting for Francis to approach as he was plowing an adjoining field. Mary Alice saw Bud and chased him off with a shotgun.

Francis and Mary Alice moved to Munroe, Louisiana, and bought a 400 acre farm near the Washataw River. Four children lived there four (4) years: Zona 1886-1898 died at 11 of diabetes; Zulz (Aunt Sis in Fort Worth) 1889 and still living in 1978; Minnis Grady 1891-1893 of "Bloody Flux"; Jeff Davis (Aunt Winnie Minchen) 1894-1933 cancer; Joseph Brakton 1896-1899 Diphtheria. Zona and Joe are buried in West Munroe Cemetery. Francis and Mary Alice had travelled to Munroe by ox wagon and buggies. There were 17 families moving West at the same time. The hunting and Fishing were good so Francis and Mary Alice stopped in Munroe. Aunt Sis (Zula Switzer) can remember campfires and singing at night. Their father, Francis, had come ahead and bought the farm. He farmed the land, cut timber and shipped it out by steamboat.

Mary Alice believed the area of Munroe was unhealthy - malaria was rampant - so she moved to Houston in about 1900 right after the Galveston Storm. They rented a house while searching for the farm and grocery store they bought in Waller, Texas. They lived there until about the Fall of 1906 when they moved back to Houston and opened a wood yard and then a meat market on Congress Avenue. About 1907 they sold the meat market and bought a store on McGowan. The family lived on Caroline between Leland and Pease.

Grandmother, Mary Alice, died in 1920 of nephritis. The family moved to Alamogordo, New Mexico. (Francis and his remaining children at home Gettie, Garnett and Benford.) The other children (Zula, Winnie, Gladys and Glenn were either married or off working.) In New Mexico Francis bought another meat market and grocery store. Here is where Garnett met George and Elizabeth Fowler from Galeton, Pennsylvania. George was building a sawmill. Their daughter, Dorothy, showed Garnett a picture of her brother, Richard Edward Fowler, who was a sailor in the U.S. Navy during World War I. Garnett and Richard (Dick) started to correspond.

In 1921 Francis bought a Maxwell car and Model T truck. The Craft family moved to Los Angeles, California to get into movies. Garnett wanted to meet Dick Fowler whose ship was in California. On August 29 or 30, 1922 Garnett and Dick were married.

Mary Alice Craft died in 1920 and her husband Francis Benjamin died in 1933 (apparently the same year his mother died at 97). They are buried in Forest Park Cemetery, Houston, Texas, along with their daughter, Winnie Minchen.

Garnett and Dick Fowler had two children: Richard Edward Fowler, Jr. born May 24, 1924 in New Orleans, Louisiana, while Dick was on a construction job; and Lois Ruth Fowler Donovan born on her father's birthday November 27, 1925. Dick Jr. entered the U.S. Navy and was commissioned an Ensign when he was 18 years old and after two years of college. He married Jean Lois Ray of Warwick, Rhode Island on July 6, 1951 and they had six (6) children. He retired in July 1974 from the U.S. Navy with the permanent rank of Rear Admiral. They now live in Sanford, Florida. Lois Fowler married Larry Donovan while he was in the Air Force during World War II. He is from Boston, Mass. They have two children: James born May 18, 1954, and is studying to be a medical doctor; and Susan born November 24, 1957, who plan to be a lawyer after completing U. of Texas.

Dear Mr. Craft:

Thank you for your phone call regarding the Craft family of southeastern Mississippi.

I checked our file for a family history and we had none. However, enclosed is a page from a book concerning Covington County, MS that has not been published yet.

Your Craft family seems to have lived in Covington County, MS before moving to Taylorsville.
I did not find the maiden name of Samuel's wife.
I did note that Samuel was born in Kentucky and his wife Drucilla was born in South Carolina. They probably did not marry until after both had arrived in Mississippi.

I hope that this information is of some help to you. If we can be of further service, please feel free to ask.

Sincerely yours,

Jean

Dear Pat -

Your letter and data on CROft -
CRAFT + Kraft came in today's mail -
The or a CROft - (English) line came into S.C. very early - it seems that many came via of Barbados, where they had owned large sugar plantations.
The Hume + Austin families came with that group -

Now my Croft family shows up in Greenville County, S.C. soon after the revolution. This was one Frederick Croft, Sr. whose wife was Catherine -
This Frederick Croft may have been John Frederick who had received 225 acres of land were surveyed for John Frederick on Maple Swamp Branch of Reedy River in 96th District, S.C.
in 1785 - and granted to him, Aug. 6, 1792 -
A number of transactions took place in Greenville County, S.C. Then in 1805 he died, leaving a will -

When Brent Holcomb read the will he said it was signed Kraft. Kraft Perfect German Skript.

His son, Frederick Jr. m. Elizabeth
Dobell. Son George, my ancestor, married
Rebecca Cox - ~~By~~ Martin Craft
m. Fannie Sullivan and they went to Ky.

From records and research, we find that our Krafts came into Pa-into Va., N.C., and Old Frederick to S.C.
Have my line, from Frederick on down -

Now Jesse Craft - was a Craft I do believe - Think he had kin who came to Hopkins County, Texas - I have Corresponded with those researching this line. Some place, I have some of that info -

Are you researching for your self,
or doing it for others?

I would like to exchange on Frederick of S.C., for what you have on Frederick Kraft.

Part of what you sent, I don't understand -
Such a CV - HR + such -

Now to Rayborns - My Raborns - Rayburns
Some 40+ spellings are found in N.C.,
Va. and TENN. Ky - S.C. - and all over -

Who published the Mark Rayburn line?
Can a copy be bought? If so, what cost and from whom.

I have a copy of the will of one
Richard Rayburn - Henrico County, Va.
He had 6 sons - 2 daughters - One dau.
had died - Her husband was Warkham Warkham Easley - So we find that name every where - The other dau.
married a Gibbs. Later I find a Rabon Easley -

I use this legal pad, due to having had eye surgery and implants - Easy on my eyes -

Years ago, I put away the typewriter thinking I had finished with this exciting and interesting hobby. Then when I would find a Query and knew answers, I started using long hand -

Thank you for writing and may I hear from you, concerning Tract and

Mike Craft

Mike Craft has been cycling for about 25 years. "It gives you a chance to not only get exercise, but travel and meet people," he said. Mike said he has always been involved in sports and was a defensive tackle during his high school and college years. He became interested in cycling through friends and has never given it up.

He recently completed a cross country cycling tour that he had dreamed of for the past 10 years. "It's an excellent way to experience other parts of the country," he said. Along with two other cyclists, he rode 3,715 miles in 47 days. "It was an adventure of a lifetime," he said. Mike retired in 2004 from the Mississippi Employment Security Commission and currently volunteers his time between the Salvation Army and Gulf Islands National Seashore. "I enjoy helping people. That's the No. 1 reason." Mike currently resides in Ocean Springs with his wife of 34 years, Sandra Craft, where they have lived since 1979 and have raised two daughters.

Tracie Craft

The best and most challenging part of Tracie Craft's life is teaching, she said. The third-grade teacher has taught for 20 years at Vancleave Upper Elementary and says the challenge is her need for perfection. The Vancleave native returned home after graduating from the University of South Alabama because she enjoys the small community.

Craft, 39, enjoys reading, singing, dancing and watching her two teenage sons play sports. She takes care of the family's two dogs, two kittens, lizard and fish. "I'm tenderhearted and tend to pick up strays," Craft said. "I love kids, old people and animals."

Craft takes her class to visit a nursing home and she hopes to find more time to spend helping the elderly.

"They have a lot to say, but we don't take time to listen," Craft said.

Historiography

The Craft Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Craft Coat of Arms design can be found in Burke's General Armory. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

"D'arg. a une fleur-de-lis de sa."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

"La fleur-de-lis, ornee a l'ext. de petites plumes d'arg."

When translated the blazon also describes the original colors of the Craft Arms and Crest as it appeared centuries ago.

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with this Craft Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name, or personal characteristics. The surname Craft appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "dweller in the small enclosed field." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations of Craft to be Croft, Crofts, and Crafts. Although bearer's of the old and distinguished Craft name comprise a small fraction of the population there are a number who have established for it a significant place in history. They include: SIR JAMES CRAFT (1530-1591) English statesman who was appointed Lord Deputy of Ireland by Edward VI, in 1551. HERBERT CRAFT (1603-1691) Prelate who was educated as a Catholic, and converted to the Anglican Church, in 1622. He became Dean of Hereford, in 1644, and Bishop. in 1661. He was the Publisher of "The Naked Truth." JAMES CRAFT (1839-1917) American organic chemist. He studied in Germany and France, from 1860 to 1865. He did research work in France and was Professor of M.I.T. from 1892 to 1898. He was Co-discover with Charles Friede of Friedel-Crafts Reaction, a synthetic reaction in which anhydrous aluminum chloride acts as a catalytic agent, responsible for bringing into existence hundreds of new carbon compounds. ERNEST CRAFT (1847-1911) English painter. In 1874, he exhibited "The Retreat, an Episode in the German-French War." His pictures were mainly on military subjects. No genealogical representation is intended or implied by this report and it does not represent individual lineage or your family tree.

Introduction to the Burrell (Berl) Craft family of Smith, Simpson, and the surrounding counties of Mississippi in the early 1800's.

During the early to middle 1800's, many people were moving west out of the east coast states into the midwest and southern part of the United States. A family by the name of Craft was among these early settlers.

The Craft family was originally from Ireland or the British Isles. They were a family close to the soil and nature. "Craftsmen" in the truest sense of the word, they were innovators, farmers, and hunters as was necessary in those early years for the providing of food and clothing during summer and winter. The Craft family had close knit ties, were hard working, peaceful, and helped populate our country by having large families. They built water mills to grind grain and blacksmith shops to make and sharpen tools used in building homes and clearing land. They also chose other occupations that met the needs for the welfare of the people.

Most families that settled in the southern states came through the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama, and into Tennessee, Kentucky, and Mississippi: SO DID THIS CRAFT FAMILY.

Burrell (Berl) Craft came from Kentucky, in his early life, to Smith County, Mississippi. Here, he met his 1st cousin Temperance (Temy) Craft, who was living with her parents in Jones County, Mississippi. Temy's father was Melvin or Luta Craft. (according to some of the older Craft's) Jim Craft was the father of Melvin and Berl. (if the reports are correct. It has always been reported that they were 1st cousins) Temy had a brother by the name of Whitmel Craft who married Bridgett _____ from Ireland. They lived in Jones County, Mississippi.

Berl and Temy married about 1837 and homesteaded land in Section 19 and 20 Township 1 North Range 8 east Smith County, Mississippi (specifically the SW 1/4 of SW 1/4 Section 20 and the SE 1/4 of SE 1/4 Section 19) or about 5 miles north of Mize, MS, on Hwy. 35 and 1 mile east off the highway. Most, if not all, of their children were born on this homestead. Their youngest daughter Temy, named after her mother, died very young and was not reported on the 1860 Smith County census. (This was told to me by my father John R. Craft, her nephew. I have no other account of this child)

Samuel L. Craft (Sam), Berl's oldest son, owned land and had a home about 2 miles north of Harmony church in Smith County, MS, in Section 12 Township 1 North Range 7 east, or about 1 1/2 miles NW of the place that his dad owned. Sam later moved to Simpson County about a mile or two north of Old Good Hope Church.

Willie Craft (Will), Sam's 10th child, owned land and had a home in Section 31 Township 1 North Range 8 east Smith County, MS.

Eli Craft , Berl's 3rd child, owned land and had a home in Section 8 Township 1 North Range 8 east Smith County, MS, or about 6 miles north of Mize on Hwy. 35 and 2 miles east on Fisher creek.

Frederick M. Craft, Berl's 5th child, owned land and had a home in Section 36 Township 1 North Range 7 east, or about 3 miles north of Mize on Hwy. 35 and on the west side.

Willoughby Craft, Berl's 7th child, owned land and had a home in Section 20 Township 1 North Range 8 east Smith County or east of Berl's place.

Bryant Craft , Berl's youngest son, owned land and had a home in Section 29 Township 1 North Range 8 east, Smith County, MS.

The places listed above were some of the places that Berle's sons and their families owned before they moved to Simpson County, MS, in the late 1800's.

In the last quarter of the 1800's, Berl, Sam, Rubin, Willoughby and Bryant moved to Simpson County, MS, where they all obtained land and homes around the Dry Creek and Old Good Hope Church communities. Some of their children had already married and did not move to Simpson County with them.

Eli, Burrell Jr., and Frederick M. never moved to Simpson County, in so far as can be determined. Berl Jr. died in an accident returning from the Civil War and it is not known where he is buried. Frederick served in Company "C" MS 8th Infantry and is buried in the Harmony Cemetary in Smith County.

Berl and Tempy died in Simpson County. Berl died in 1900 and Tempy died in 1898. They were buried in the Old Good Hope cemetery in Simpson County, MS, or about 7 miles north of Magee.

After the death of their parents, Willoughby and Bryant, along with most of their children, moved back to Smith County around 1905. Some of their children had married in Simpson County and therefore did not move back (this is primarily why this family is divided between the two counties.) Willoughby's home was where Dry Creek Church stands today.

Willoughby purchased land about 2 miles NE of Mize, in Smith County, sometime before 1918, because he sold John R. Craft (my dad), Willoughby's 9th child, 44 acres of land in 1918. (see copy of land deed on next pages) This land is part of the place where Homer Craft, Willoughby's 7th child, raised his family during the early 1900's.

Willoughby owned a place in Section 36 Township 1 North Range 7 east in 1922 on which was a cotton gin, a water mill, and a small country store. This place was earlier owned by Samuel Butler (Sam) (my grandfather on my mother's side)

Willoughby's wife, Fronnie Elizabeth (Betty), died in 1922 and is buried with Willoughby in the Pleasant Home Cemetery in Smith County, MS, or about 4 1/2 miles NE of Mize on a country road.

Bryant Craft, Berl's youngest son, took out a homestead for land while in Simpson County, MS. (see copy of patent - next pages)

Bryant moved back to Smith County in the early 1900's and purchased land in Section 25 and 26 Township 10 North Range 15 west Smith County, MS, or about 3 miles west of Fellowship Church, just west of Taylorsville, MS. Bryant and his family lived there until 1909 when he purchased land from W.D. and Nellie Stubbs in Section 33 and 34 Township 1 North Range 8 east and lived there until he and his wife, Annis, died. They are buried in the Fellowship Cemetery.

Certainly there are other places where other members of Berl's family lived, but these are the only ones that I am familiar with or have any record of at this time.

I wish to thank those who had a part in establishing this record. It was begun some 20 years ago by Shirley Lavie (Brown) Scoggins, then continued to be updated and researched by Casceal (Craft) Taylor for several years and is now being continued by Randall E. Craft Sr., who for the last year has made a considerable effort to complete it. I would especially like to recognize the work of my granddaughter, Melissa Craft, who has done the processing and computerizing of this book. I also would like to thank Joseph L. Craft (Joe), Samuel L. (Sam's) grandson, for going with me many times to homes, and cemeteries in Simpson County. I never would have found the way without him. Will you please do your part to make this a complete and accurate record of The Willoughby Craft Family by sending any information to the Historian.

(Mississippi No. 4)

ORIGINAL ENTRIES FROM UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

(N. B.) If the patent from the Government is not actually of record, a certificate executed by any reputable attorney in Washington, D. C., to the effect that the records in the General Land Office show the issuance of the patent, will be acceptable in lieu of this sheet.

If land traces from Spanish land grants, full and complete information as to such grants, as can be given, must be fully set forth.

ENTRIES

According to the Abstractor's Certified Tract Book at page 63, the E $\frac{1}{2}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$ Section 19, Township 1 North, Range 8 East, Smith County, Mississippi, was purchased from the United States of America by Eli M. Craft on December 9, 1871.

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE BURRELL CRAFT DECENDENTS

All information in this book has been received from records of each individual family and from dates off tombstones, etc. The names and dates may not agree with the actual record, but I believe they are accurate enough to identify each individual in this record.

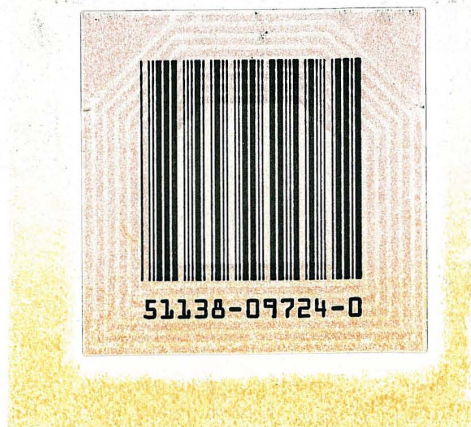

It had been very rewarding for me to do this work. Although time consuming and expensive, I know a lot more about our family heritage and history. I hope that each of you will treasure this book the way that I do.

I hope that we will all know and love each other better. We are all one family and should love and cherish each other as such. I know that many heartaches and trials occur to us all, but we should know that God established and ordained the human family long before He established even His church. We should all read His Word and try to live according to It. Our family is a great family and I am very proud to be a member of it, but my greatest concern is whether or not we'll all be a part of that great family with Jesus in the hereafter.

Thanks from the bottom of my heart
for your cooperation,

Randall E. Craft, Sr.

PLEASE READ

The material in this booklet is the work of Mrs. Kathryn McNeill. I had no part in the research, the writing, or the printing. However, I did borrow one of the original booklets and reproduced this copy, not for any monetary gain, but to search for clues that might lead to information on my own family, Burrell Craft who was born in 1802 in Kentucky.

July 1, 1973

I began the preparation of this pamphlet more than two years ago with certain definite aims in mind, I wanted, first of all, to trace the family tree of JESSIE CRAFT and NANCY J. KEYS from its beginning to the present. To this end I enlisted the aid of many family members, through letters and private interviews and the tree began to grow branches. To all of you who have responded to my call for information, I take this means to say THANK YOU.

My second aim in writing was to prepare a pamphlet which would be uniform as possible in organization and content. To this end I relied heavily on information gathered from film of the U. S. Census in the library at the University of Southern Mississippi; however, none of the information contained herein has been documented, consequently discrepancies do exist so I ask for your help in correcting these errors which are found.

An attempt was made to add personal touches to our family as to religious affiliations, military records, education and even some physical descriptions which would be of an interest to another generation.

The John Chisholm/Verlinda Harvey family are included in this pamphlet because five of the Craft children married into this family. The relationship to each might be of interest to many of you.

This is a beginning - and because we have a family reunion each year in the month of July at the Double Church I would like at this time to suggest that this record be "added to" each year.

Your kinred -

"Katie" McNeill

CRAFT

French and Spanish Adventurers, less interested in establishing homes in the New World but more eager to find easy-to-get wealth to take home with them to their native countries, came to the Mississippi regions in the fifteen hundreds. They didn't stay long and left few if any visible evidences of their sojourn here.

When hostilities between the American colonies and the Mother Country reached the stage where an armed conflict became necessary, large numbers of Tories of the New England section, unwilling to participate in the forced resistance, moved their families to the Natchez district, establishing plantations around Vicksburg, Port Gibson and Natchez. It was through these wealthy landowners that the large slave-operated plantations came into existence.

Prior to that time, small groups of German and Swiss farmers had been induced by the French to take up acreages in the territory.

In 1798 when the Territory of Mississippi was formed from the Western section of what was then Georgia, it included what later became the Territory of Alabama; Shortly after that Territory had been formed, Mississippi became a state on December 10, 1817.

At the completion of the Louisiana Purchase in 1803, thousands of settlers rushed into Mississippi for the available new land. Many of these land seekers were former residents of New England communities and some of the Southern States along the Atlantic Coast. It was during this time, 1805-1816 that the Crafts left North and South Carolina for this new land. These will be shown in the first census of the Mississippi Territory and the Counties in which they settled.

Another tremendous migration into Mississippi, sometimes likened to the 1849 gold rush into California, came in a four year period ending in 1837, when the last of the Indian lands in Mississippi had been opened for settlement. Most of those acquiring this land came from the eastern section of the nation.

JESSIE CRAFT 1824 - 1907

a son of ¹⁷⁷⁵
WHITMELL CRAFT b ~~1875~~ in South Carolina and
ELIZABETH HOWELL b 1793 in South Carolina

Whitmell Craft born in South Carolina went to Kentucky and then later to Mississippi, Jessie (Jesse) Craft was born in Covington County, Mississippi and then settled in Smith County, Mississippi near Raleigh on the land known as Shongalo. Shongalo is a little creek a few miles east of Raleigh and north of Highway 18. One crosses it in going to the Double Church, it is an Indian name. Jessie Craft was a farmer and practiced medicine for 40 to 50 years in the farming community. Records show that his name was recorded as JESSE but because his tombstone at the Double Church in Smith County shows Dr. Jessie Craft, for this purpose I have used the JESSIE.

Jessie Craft married NANCY J KEYS born 1829, died after 1890 and they had ten children. They took into their home to raise another child whom was considered a half sister to the other children. This child is included in this pamphlet because of the affection of the other children towards her.

After the death of Nancy J Keys, Jessie Craft married Aletha (Lethie) Valentine. There were no children from this marriage. I have not at this time found the graves of either of these two ladies.

Dr. Jessie Craft lived alone after his second wife died, but practiced medicine up until almost the time of his death. The lands which were held by him were either, given, sold or divided by his children and some of his descendants still own this land in Smith County today.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

THANKS: I would like to thank all the ladies who furnished information on the Bryant Craft families. Grandpa Craft would really appreciate your work.

WHY SO MANY INCOMPLETE RECORDS? Paul said, "I delivered unto you first of all that which I received." I have followed Paul's example. I have delivered to you, my readers, that which I received.

WHY SO MANY LINES? Lines are very useful. When a person dies that person's death date can be written on the lines. When a child is born that child's birth date can be written on the lines. Also, when some people see the booklet they will give information on their family which has not been previously recorded. This information can be written on the lines.

CONCLUDING REMARKS: I hope that this document will serve as a beginning of what might some day become a complete, unabridged account of the Bryant and Annis Robinson Craft family.

PS, SOME OF THE BIRTH DATES OF THE BRYANT CRAFT CHILDREN WERE TAKEN FROM CENSUS RECORDS AND SOME FROM TOMB STONES. THEY MAY NOT AGREE WITH PRIVATE, HOME RECORDS.

GRANDPA BRYANT CRAFT
By Gale Anderson

To write the Grandpa Bryant Craft document,
I must go back seventy years and lament.
I must experience days of sadness and days of joy,
I must, once again, become a tiny, little boy.

I must observe Grandpa as in his field he did plow,
I must see great drops of sweat fall from his brow.
I must remember that the days were sultry and hot,
But Grandpa kept on plowing, he did'nt stop.

I must remember when it came Grandma Annis' time to die,
I must, once again, hear Grandpa Craft's mournful cry,
I must feel Grandpa's hurt, grief, and pain,
I must live his dreadful experience over again.

During his last days, I must watch Grandpa sit and sigh,
I must retire to a secluded place and take a cry.
I must watch Grandpa Craft as he dreams of by-gone days,
To write his Bio., I must become Bryant in all my ways.

I must remember when I went to Grandpa's bed one night,
When I said, "Grandpa, you're going to be all right."
I must listen and hear his weak, faint voice say,
"Pray, but I think I've come to the end of the way."

A BRIEF SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF BRYANT CRAFT

BIRTH OF BRYANT CRAFT

Bryant Craft, who was born on July 1, 1855, was the youngest child of Burrel and Temperance (Tempa) Craft. Being the last child, the baby, caused no problem in Grandpa Bryant Craft's adult life. He stood on his own feet and did not expect or demand special attention from anyone.

EARLY YEARS OF LIFE

Grandpa Craft grew up on a small farm which was situated in Sections 20 & 21, Township 1, Range 8, Smith County Mississippi. On this small farm, 80 acres, the Crafts grew most of their food. Things that they could not grow, wild fruit and eatable game, were taken from the swamps of St. Eli and Cohay Creeks which were a few miles to the west. Food was also taken from the headwaters of Ben Branch which was a short distance to the east.

BRYANT CRAFT AND ANNIS ROBINSON UNITED IN HOLY MATRIMONY

When Grandpa Bryant Craft was around twentyfive years old he met, courted, and married Annis Robinson. It is my belief, please notice that I said belief, that Grandpa Craft and Annis Robinson were married in the last part of the winter of 1881 or the first part of 1882. I base my belief on the fact that no birth control methods were practiced in those days, and, that according to the census records, William Benjamin, their first child was born in August of 1882.

NOTE: Grandma Annis Robinson, who, according to my research, was one-fourth Cherokee Indian and who probably had some Indian blood from the Robinson side of the family, must have been one of the most beautiful girls in Smith County. I don't see how Grandpa Bryant Craft, a big red-faced Irishman, managed to land her.

NO FORMAL EDUCATION

Bryant (B.C.) Craft had no formal education, but was heighly skilled in what it took to survive in his day. He was a master craftsman in wood work. He gave me his dining table, which he had hand made in earlier years. Where special nailles are used today, he used wooden pegs. The bedstead that my Grandmother slept on, a beatiful piece of work, was hand made by Grandpa Bryant. If it could be hewed, carved, or whittled, present it to Bryant for a superb job.

Grandpa Bryant Craft was also skilled in Blacksmith work. He could take a piece of steel, heat it to what he called cherry red, and shape it into whatever design he choose.

Another skill that Grandpa Bryant Craft possessed was his knowledge of land lines and land corners. He could quickly show any interested party where the land lines, both township and range, were anywhere within the area of hia residency.

DWELLING PLACES OF GRANDPA AND GRANDMA CRAFT

During the seventy-six years of my life, years that have come and gone, I have heard said that Grandpa and Grandma Craft once lived down in Section 7, Township 10N, Range 14W. I can neither confirm or deny this. Another relative once told me that his mother said that she vaguely remembered living in a small log house on or near the Burrel Craft homestead.

In the last half of the 1880's, Bryant Craft moved to Simpson County where his parents, his sister, and some of his brothers had already moved. In Simpson County he took out a homestead for land in Section 5, Township 1, Range 3W.

Today, 1988, there are Crafts in the Dry Creek, Old Good Hope Primitive Baptist Church, and Martinville areas. Most all of these are descendants of Burrel and Tempa Craft.

BRYANT CRAFT'S FATHER AND MOTHER CLAIMED BY DEATH

As previously stated, when Bryant Craft moved to Simpson County he settled on land in Section 5, Township 1, Range 3W. According to my third removed cousin, Joseph Craft, Burrell and Tempa Craft lived just across the township line in Section 32, Township 1, Range 3W.

On January 14, 1898, Grandpa Craft's mother, Tempa Craft, died. Two years later, May 25, 1900, Burrel Craft, his father, died. Both are buried in Old Good Hope Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery.

BRYANT AND ANNIS ROBINSON CRAFT MOVE BACK TO SMITH COUNTY

In or around 1901 or 1902, after the death of his father and mother, Bryant Craft moved from Simpson back to Smith County. They, the entire family who was still together, moved to a farm that Grandpa had bought from Willias and Theo Docia Powell. This land was situated in Sections 25 and 26, Township 10, Range 15W. For the lay person, this land was about three miles west of Fellowship Baptist Church.

The Bryant Craft family lived on the farm that they had purchased from the powells until 1909. On the 22 of November, 1909, they concluded all transactions for another farm. This farm was bought from W.D. and Nellie Stubbs. It was situated in Sections 33 and 34, Township 1, Range 8E. Grandpa Bryant and Grandma Annis lived on this farm until claimed by death.

CHURCH AFFILIATION

Since the W.M. Robinson family was living in the area long before there was a Taylorsville, and since Fellowship Baptist Church is much older than Taylorsville, most of the Robinsons were affiliated with Fellowship. So, it seems reasonable to assume that Grandma Annis Robinson Craft was a member of Fellowship Baptist Church at the time of her death. According to the written records, Grandpa Bryant Craft was, and had been for many years, a member of Providence Baptist Church.

WARREN

(GRANDMA. MARTHA'S FAMILY)

Grandma Martha Great Grandfather (my Great Great, Great Grandpa) was named John Warren. He was born between 1770-1780 and died 1840-1850. His wife name and birthday unknown, but she died 1835-1840. They had a daughter name Martha and was born 1795. Martha had two Children named Mary born 1825 and John born 1826. We do not have anymore information on Mary.

The following information is about my Great Grandpa JOHN WARREN as recorded in the Simpson County News Aug. 3, 1978.

Then and Now

By Willie T. Welch

JOHN WARREN headed a large family in Simpson County, Mississippi in 1830, at which time he was listed as being between 50 and 60 years of age. This would suggest that he was born during the decade 1770 to 1780, just prior to or during the Revolutionary War. Others enumerated with him, but whose names were not made a matter of record by the census taker, included a female, age 40-50; three females 20-30; one female 15-20; a male and two females 10-15; two females 5-10; a male child under 5 years, and three slaves.

In the census that followed the above, JOHN WARREN (in 1840) was shown as 60-70 years of age. It appears that the senior lady of the previous census record, whom I would think was his wife, and about six of the older children had gone and probably were enumerated in their own separate families. Children still in the home with Mr. Warren included three females between 15 and 20 years of age; a male 10-15; a male 5-10; and four slaves. The age of the youngest child, born about 1830 to 1835, suggests the probability that Mrs. Warren had died about 1835-40. I've found any subsequent census record for this John Warren, and it is possible that he died between 1840 and 1850.

A lady by the name MARTHA WARREN headed her family at the time of the census of 1850. She then was said to have been 55? years of age, which would mean that she was born about 1795? (The age figures were not clearly legible). Martha Warren's birthplace was said to have been South Carolina. With her were two younger persons--probably a daughter and a son--both of whom were enlisted as born in Mississippi. They were Mary Warren, 25, and John Warren, 23. Simple arithmetic suggests that Mary was born about 1825 and John about 1827. I presently have no additional information on this family.

JAMES H. WARREN was shown as 36 years old in the census of 1850, and his place of birth was cited as South Carolina. The year of his birth would have been about 1814. Others enumerated with him included Martha Warren, also 36 and born in Virginia; Sara J.

Warren, 8; Martha A. Warren, 5; John R. Warren, 3; and Mary A. Warren, 2. The four children were shown as born in Mississippi.

I don't yet have the 1860 or the 1870 census records for this JAMES H. WARREN family, but the 1880 record shows his age was 66 and his birthplace as South Carolina. These are fully consistent with the above record for 1850. The 1880 record shows that his father's birthplace was North Carolina, and that his mother was born in South Carolina. Others in this home in 1880 included his wife, Molsie? J. Warren, 48; Amanda Warren, 24; Margaret Warren, 13; Rebecca Warren, 14; Jacob Warren, 12; Wade Warren, 11; and Daniel Warren, 14. Daniel's relationship to the head of the family was grandson. The other five children were listed as daughters and sons, and all were still single at the time of the census. The birthplace of the wife and mother was shown as Mississippi, which is true also for both of her parents. Young Daniel Warren and both of his parents, whoever they were, were said to have been born in Mississippi.

Then and Now

By Willie T. Welch

Another JOHN WARREN was 55 years of age in the census records for 1880, which means he was born about 1825. His place of birth was shown as Mississippi, while that of both of his parents was South Carolina. It is possible that he might have been a son of the John Warren previously reported as having headed a family in Simpson County in 1830 and in 1840, but I cannot assert this as a known fact. Others in this household in 1880 included John's wife, Sarah Warren, age 29; Martha Warren, 19; John T. Warren, 16; Eggleston Warren, 14; James A. Warren, 11; Sarah Warren, 9; Joseph Warren, 7; George Warren, 4; and Margaret Warren, 2. The children were specifically said to have been the sons and daughters of the head of the household, and all eight of them were listed as natives of Mississippi, the same as were both of their parents. Both of the parents of Sarah Warren, the wife and mother, were said to have been born in Virginia.

SAMENTHIA SHORT, age 48, was named as head of a family in 1880 in which four other persons were also enumerated, and whose last name was Warren. I, therefore, give that information here. Based on the age cited, Samantha Short would have been born about 1832. Her birthplace, and that of both of her parents is, was shown as Mississippi. The Warrens then living with her included her daughter, Margaret Warren, 25, and three of Samenthia's grandsons (apparently Margaret's sons--and sons of an unidentified young Mr. Warren) whose names were Charlie Warren, 5; George Warren, 3; and Webster Warren, 1. These, and both parents of each, were said to have been born in Mississippi. Since they were born in the 1870's, it is quite reasonable to suppose that some of you who read this column may remember them--that is, Charlie, George and Webster.

JOSEPH WARREN was listed as 46 years of age in the census of 1880. He was born in Massachusetts about 1834, which state also was named as the birthplace of both of his parents. His wife was June Warren, age 36, born in Alabama about 1844. Both of her parents were said to have been natives of Alabama also. Joseph Warren's occupation was Grocer, and it is quite likely that his wife also worked with him in the operation of the business. They seem to have had only one child, a daughter Maggie Warren, age 11, and born in Mississippi about 1869.

THOMAS WARREN, listed as 28 in 1880, would have been born about 1852. His birthplace, as well as that of both of his parents, his wife and both of her parents, was Mississippi. His wife, Harriet Warren, was listed as 19 years old, therefore she would have been born about the time the Civil War began, in 1861. This young couple then had only one child, William Warren, who was only 8 months old, born in October 1879.

DENNIS and OPHELIA WARREN, husband and wife, both were shown as 25 years of age in the census of 1880, and married within the year. Both were born in Mississippi, as were the parents of both of them. Enumerated with them was Joanna Courod?, age 11, whose relationship to the head of the family was shown as niece.

A John Warren is named among the men of Simpson County who served the Confederacy during the Civil War, and we all know that the name Warren has been prominent in many ways and for long years, including Mr. Jack A. Warren, Jr. who served in the state legislature at least two terms and in various other important activities, and Mr. George F. Warren who served as Supervisor in District 2, beginning in 1916. There no doubt have been others whose services I do not presently recall, since I have been away from the area for almost 44 years. Surely all of us wish for them many more years of good health and much happiness. I extend special greetings and good wishes to a fine young lady who was a member of my 1933 graduating class at the Simpson County AHS, Nell Warren (since I don't know her present name.)

JOHN L. WARREN was born May 18, 1826. On census records his birthplace is shown as Mississippi, while that of both of his parents was South Carolina. Different family members have said that he had one brother Hamp, and a sister Martha, who is said to have married a Harvey. He is named among the men of Simpson County who served the Confederacy during the Civil War, although, different family members have reported that he served only when it suited him.

One story told about his military career is that Grandpa John had come home for a visit, unfortunately without a pass. The army sent a soldier to bring Grandpa John back to camp. The soldier arrived and proceeded to tell Grandpa John that he had to take him back to camp. Since it was so near lunch time, Grandpa John convinced the soldier that the best thing to do was wait until Grandma had finished lunch, eat and then go on back. In the meantime, he asked the soldier to lie down on the porch and rest until lunch was ready. The soldier soon fell asleep and Grandpa John departed out the back door.

Another story told to James Hester Warren and his brother, George Henry Warren by their Grandpa John was about the storm and the Rock House. Grandpa John and a Mr. Womack were good friends, this could have been Grandpa John's first wife's brother. Anyway, Grandpa John and Mr. Womack would usually take their "leaves" from the Army together. This particular time though, a bad storm came up. They were down in the woods, and decided to take shelter in a little Rock House, that was used as a storm cellar. The storm was fierce, and soon Mr. Womack fell on his knees praying for the Lord to save them from the terrible storm. As the storm grew stronger, Mr. Womack prayed louder. Finally the storm broke and they were able to leave the Rock House, only to discover that a tree had blown down across the Rock House. Mr. Womack, either so relieved that the storm was over or so thankful that his prayers were answered, first words were, "Be damned that nearly got us didn't it?".

Grandpa John was married twice. His first wife was a Womack. They had two children, Dennis Warren and Rosena Warren, who married a Bud Cook.

His second wife was SARAH W. OVERBY. She was called Sally by all her friends and family. She was born December 1, 1840, in Mississippi. Both of her parents were said to have been born in Virginia. She and Grandpa John had nine children.
